

Workers' Assembly on Immigration

(4:30 pm to 8:00 pm Friday, 9:30 am to 5:00 pm Saturday)

Fri & Sat, April 11th and 12th, 2008
The Evergreen State College Tacoma Campus

1210 Sixth Avenue
Tacoma, Washington

*Childcare and Transportation will be available -please call for more information

The Assembly is for workers to talk to one another about immigration, how it affects working families in all of our communities, and what we can do to stop exploitation on the job and in the streets.

"How can workers, immigrant communities and their supporters respond to ICE raids?"

"How can we overcome stereotypes and myths about each others' communities to create a stronger power base and solidarity?"

"How are children in immigrant communities dealing with the ongoing terrorizing of their families by some municipal law enforcement and ICE. How can community allies help?"

Assembly Organizers: Labor Center at The Evergreen State College and El Comité Pro Reforma Migratoria y Justicia Social

Sponsors: American Friends Service Committee, A. Philip Randolph Institute, Laborer's Northwest Regional Organizing Coalition, Service Employees Int'l Union Local 6, Washington State Labor Council, Teamsters 117, UW Harry Bridges Center for Labor Studies, MEChA SU, NO! SIR, IUPAT District Council 5, CASA Latina, Orgullo Pu'repecha, MEChA TESC, UFCW 21, LCLAA, UNITE-HERE Local 8, WPEA UFCW Local 365, OPEIU Local 8 and Other Community-Based Workers' Organizations.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT Juan Jose Bocanegra – 360.918.2726 or e-mail bocanegj@evergreen.edu

"The strongest bond of human sympathy, outside of the family relation, should be one uniting all working people, of all nations, and tongues, and kindreds." Abraham Lincoln